

À compter du 22 août 2026

The map illustrates the 100% Orange Line route in Montreal. It starts at the terminus at Gare du Palais and travels through the city, passing through various streets and landmarks. The route is shown in orange, with the terminus at Gare du Palais marked with a black dot. The map includes labels for various streets, landmarks, and bus stop locations. Key features include the route's path through the city, the location of the terminus at Gare du Palais, and the location of the terminus at Champigny. The map also shows the route's connection to the 100% Orange Line and the 100% Orange Line.